

Report on Invited talk on Supply Chain Management

Time : 11.15am
Duration: 90 Mins.
Audience: Operation specialization students of III Semester PGDM -AICTE program
Venue : MDP HALL(LEVEL-2)
Date : 6th Sep 2018

An invited talk on “Supply chain management challenges and trends” was held on 6thSep 2018. The talk has been organized by Ramaiah Institute of Management to provide the students with an opportunity to get an insight into SCM challenges and future trends.

Guest Profile:

Dr. K N Subramanya is presently working as Principal and Professor, Department of Industrial Engineering and Management at R V College of Engineering. His Academic Qualification includes: Ph.D. in Supply Chain Management, MBA with HR specialization (5th Rank), M.Tech. in Industrial Management (IITM, Chennai) and B.E in Industrial and Production Engineering (Bangalore University). His 23 years of experience includes teaching, training and research. The professional expertise includes Lean Manufacturing System, Operations Management, Intelligent Systems in Supply Chain and Logistics Management, e-Enterprise solutions, Simulation Modeling and Analysis, Systems Engineering, Operations Research, Probability & Statistics, Applied Ergonomics and Business Process Management.

He is a research supervisor of four scholars, who are pursuing doctoral program in Lean Supply Chain Networks, Cloud SCN, Designing E-Procurement Models and Performance of B2B markets and a reviewer for IEEE International Journal on “Automation and Systems”. He has executed / executing projects and consultancy works funded by Government and private funded agencies worth more than Rs. 1.5 crores. He has published and presented more than 70 technical papers in National and International Journals / conferences. The number of corporate training programmes / faculty development programmes / technical talks conducted is more than 100. He has guided more than 100 Under-Graduate and Post-Graduate student projects and many of them have been implemented by manufacturing and service organizations. He is an active member QCFI, ORSI, ISTE, IIMs & IIIE. He holds administrative posts in various Academic, Statutory, Compliance, NBA and TEQIP Committees of the Institution and other Autonomous colleges. He has received many awards viz. Excellence in Education Award at RVCE, Best Paper Award in many National and International Conferences, Dr. S R Gollapudi Award 2013 from IIIE-India, Vision Group on Science and Technology under K-FIST Level II, Govt. of Karnataka for establishing Non Destructive Testing Laboratory for Post Graduate Courses and Research from Hon. Chief Minister of Karnataka and Bharat Ratna Prof. C N R Rao on 16th June 2014 and Cognizant award for Best Researcher from ISTE-RVCE Chapter during Teachers’ Day celebration on 30th September 2014.

Content Coverage:

The talk was intended to provide information on the areas to be focused by Management students to become successful managers in any reputed company. He emphasized on technological innovations relevant for Supply Chain Management. Six Dimensions of Digital Supply Chain Management. He explained on framework of B2B Market and framework of B2B E-commerce with respect to supply chain. He covered the virtual Reality Applications in Manufacturing. Talk was delivered by giving many live company examples.

